

The following is a sample Hold Harmless Agreement/Participant Release Waiver. All Members, Non-Member Participants and Volunteers involved in club activities should sign an agreement and release form stating that they are participating and/or volunteering in your event at their own risk. It is also important that your Participant Release Agreement state that each Member or Non-Member has his or her own accidental medical insurance to cover the injuries to them and family members and that they have personal liability insurance to cover any negligent acts caused by them or their family members for which they are personally responsible. This is only a sample. Because equine laws differ from state to state, we suggest that all member clubs consult an attorney for the preparation of their agreement.
